

6516204917.txt

Please do not restrict Sallelite radio's ability to provide locally oriented programming. Since the sattelite providers are subscription based you can receive the information you need without having to weed through commercials and morning show antics. These features are especially important to those of us that travel often and need dependable local information on the go, but don't want to search the dial to get it. Thank you for your consideration.
William Pierce